Beery reminded members that the P&O Committee’s work involves reviewing both the past reports and checking in on present progress, while also looking to the future for each budget funded by BSEP.

The major responsibility of the P&O Committee is reviewing the budgets for the individual resources, assessing success in meeting goals, and noticing variances between BUSD is now in a period of belt-tightening, as we are entering a period of flat funding with increasing costs.

There was further discussion on whether and how fund balances could help fill shortfalls.

The current chairs, Perez and Simon, offered to continue to serve. Morgan moved to approve the self-nominations, Bradstreet seconded, with two abstentions. Perez and Simon were re-elected.

Simon noted he would like this to be his last year as co-chair and encouraged others to consider the role.
